Scope of the Journal

The Journal of Human Kinetics is a respected interdisciplinary periodical offering the latest research in the science of human movement studies. This comprehensive professional journal features articles and research notes encompassing such topic areas as kinesiology, exercise physiology, sports medicine, sports training.

Articles accepted for review

The journal publishes original papers, reviews, short communications and letters to the Editors. Manuscripts submitted to the journal must contain novel data on theoretical or experimental research or on practical applications in the field of sport sciences. No substantial part of the submission should have been published elsewhere. Submitted papers undergo peer reviewing by two independent referees. Authors are encouraged to provide names of 3-4 potential reviewers who were not recent co-authors or collaborators and are familiar with the subject of the manuscript. The names of the potential reviewers must be accompanied by their complete addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses.

Original articles: Theoretical or experimental (basic or applied) research or practical applications. Either original work or the replication of work that better establishes basic principles will be considered. Original articles should not exceed 15 pages (1800 characters per page) including tables, graphs, pictures and references.

Review articles: Review articles on topics of broad interest are desirable. Authors who wish to submit an unsolicited review article should correspond with the Editors to determine the timelines of the proposed review article. Review articles should not exceed 20 pages including tables, graphs, pictures and references. Review articles are considered by the Editors and expert referees before a final decision regarding publication is made.

Short communications: Short manuscripts containing results of unusual scientific interest and importance, requiring rapid publication. Papers submitted for this accelerated process must require little or no revision. Accompanying the submission should be a letter from the authors stating why they feel the paper should be published as a rapid communication. The manuscripts in such cases should not exceed 5 journal pages including figures, tables and references. Manuscripts rejected as Short Communications are eligible for submission as regular articles.

Letters to the Editor: Letters to the editor are welcome and will be published if appropriate. The maximum length is 800 words. Letters relating to material previously published in the JHK should be submitted within 6 months after the publication of the material the letter is referring to. Such letters will be sent to the corresponding author for comment within 4 weeks. The original letter and any reply will be published concurrently.

Discussion: emphasize the new and important aspects of the study and conclusions derived from the study

References cited in the text: references should be cited in the text by author and year of the publication e.g. (Jaric, 1989). In case there are more than one author, the rule is as follows:

- citing a reference with two authors:
  Smith and Jones (2007) stated that…
  or (Smith and Jones, 2007)

- citing a reference with three authors or more:
  Smith et al. (2007) stated that…
  or (Smith et al., 2007)

References: should be compiled alphabetically at the end of the article

Entries in the reference list should be styled as follows:

- references to standard journal articles:

  titles of journals should be abbreviated according to the latest edition of ISI Journal Title Abbreviations. (http://www.efm.leeds.ac.uk/~mark/ISIabbr/).

- references to books:

- references to websites:

- references to conference presentations:

  references to unpublished papers presented at conferences will not be accepted

- references to master / doctoral thesis:

  references to master / doctoral thesis will not be accepted published abstracts must not be used as references; the use of a large number of abstracts or non-peer reviewed articles in the reference section will be grounds for rejection of the submission without review.

all references listed must be cited in the manuscript and referred to by author. References must be limited to 30 entries.

non-English papers may be included in the references, yet only if the publication has an English abstract; the title of the original paper must be translated into English.

authors bear complete responsibility for the accuracy of the references.

Tables, Figures and Photos:

- do not place Tables and Figures in the text of the paper, but present them on separate pages at the end of the manuscript following the References; in the text of the paper, indicate approximately where Tables and Figures should appear (e.g. insert Table 1 here).
- the article may contain up to 3 Tables, 3 Figures and 3 Pictures; they all need to be positioned vertically.
- Tables, Figures and Pictures should be consecutively numbered (e.g. Table 1, Figure 1, Picture 1).
- the Table/Figure/Picture’s title – bold, adjusting – to the right.
- all descriptions should be placed below Table/Figure/Photo, font – italics, adjusting - centered.
- the maximal size of original Tables, Photos and Figures is 14 x 20 cm, minimum 8-point type; edging lines marked.
- Tables, Photos and Figures – only vertically positioned.

Language: only English

- before submitting your article, you may want to have it edited for correct usage of the English language, particularly if English is not your first language. Please note that this step is not mandatory and moreover, language editing does not guarantee that your manuscript will be accepted for publication. The Journal of Human Kinetics recommends: American Journal Experts for correcting scientific manuscripts in the area of sport sciences. Authors are liable for all costs associated with such services.

Paper’s submission:

- only via e-mail:
  - jhk@awf.katowice.pl
